

Examples for Leadership Goals

for Experts and Project Managers

The following are some examples of leadership goals for experts (FR/R) and project managers (PLs/SPL). Take the chance - together with your manager - to give you an ambitious and relevant leadership target for 2020. In particular, consider to what extent you are already fulfilling your "Thought Leadership" responsibilities and where and through which measures you can exert even more influence in our business.

Exemplary LEADERSHIP objectives for experts ((Fach)Referenten)

- Thought Leadership" / self-motivated knowledge generation/extension in order to further advance topic (...) in the company
- proactive, targeted transfer of knowledge and "best practice" to (...) through internal training and/or specialist lectures
- technical guidance and support of (team) colleagues (...) and interfaces (...)
- Further expand consulting / internal networking competence
-

Exemplary LEADERSHIP objectives for project managers ((Senior) Projektleiter)

- active involvement with the Project Pioneers
- further strengthen comprehensive specialist knowledge and methodological competence through (...)
- Promoting cooperation in the project team through (...)
- Strengthen quality / adherence to schedules through improved coordination and cooperation skills
- Making responsibility for the project and for the project team more visible through (...)
- strengthening intercultural competence through (...)
-